God enjoys giving wisdom to those who ask (James 1:5). We are to turn our eyes to him in our weakest moments and seek his deliverance. 4. Replace It with a Deeper Joy.

One of the best strategies for changing a behavior is to replace it. We can replace our unhealthy habitual patterns with healthy patterns.

Part of God's intent as we walk His way of life is that we redeem the time that we find ourselves wasting and dedicate it instead to living according to God's purpose. When you understand God's purpose for your life, it should give you a sense of urgency that motivates you to change— not later, not tomorrow, not sometime, but beginning

We owe God all praise and thanks for his action in our salvation. We are less capable of saving ourselves than a blind man is capable of driving. Less able than a camel fitting through the eye of a needle. But God graciously rescued us and gave us new hearts. God's ability to change the worst of sinners offers hope for all.
