In World of Warcraft we know the Aspects as the great Dragonkin leaders. But we have not really seen how they all came together and became those great leaders we know today. Dawn of the Aspects took you back to the beginning and showed you five dragons who were very different that came together for a common cause and by the end became something more then any thought they would be.

So far, I've seen Argent Dawn guys offering this for 10 Necrotic Shards in Ironforge, Stormwind and Light's Hope Chapel. You need to complete Under The Shadow first, where you hand in 10 Necrotic Soul Shards to that Argent Dawn guy in Light's Hope. Then you can trade in more Shards for other rewards, among them the Tabard.

Definitely a good book if you are playing World of Warcraft. The parts of this book can't be read on their own though and I would highly recommend getting all the parts so that you can immediately continue r 4 stars for readers who play World of Warcraft, otherwise probably only 2 because the characters etc. would be confusing and the book as a whole would probably be a lot less interesting.
